ITALY WILL INSIST.

Rumors of an Absurd Demand.

INDIRECT AND INDEFINITE.

Blaine is Absent and No One Knows.

Speculations Are Rife and Widely Discussed.

Theories Are Thick.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It is impossible to secure information to-day that confirms the report from Rome that the Italian government is about to give Minister Porter his passport and sever diplomatic negotiation, unless it received to-day an answer from Secretary Blaine to Premier Rudini's last note. Secretary Blaine is not at the State Department. Of three Assistant Secretaries, one is confined to his home by illness and the others are in profound ignorance upon the subject, so they said. Even an expression of opinion could not be elicited from them. Secretary Blaine declined to make any statement touching the matter and was not ready to give out for publication the correspondence which has taken place since his first letter was sent. The Marquis Imperiali was commenting upon Baron Fava's departure; still, in all this official silence, it is easy to detect a disposition to discredit the last Rome letter.

There is strong circumstantial evidence tending to show there is no warrant for such a threat on the part of the Italian government, and that if it has been made it was by a misunderstanding. Undoubtedly at this juncture the fact that Italy fully authorized her diplomatic representative at Washington tends to complicate negotiations of the governments and breed misunderstanding. In a few moments conversation it would be possible for the Secretary of State to make a satisfactory explanation to the foreign Minister, what would otherwise be an unreasonable delay in carrying forward negotiations. Marquis Imperiali is an impersonal figure in the controversy. The Secretary may direct his notes to him, but he can't reply personally nor interfere with any suggestion. He can simply transmit the notes passing between Italy and the United States. It is suggested that Secretary Blaine is dissatisfied with this cumbersome way of correspondence at second hand, and has already availed himself of the more direct way of communication afforded by the presence of the American Minister in Rome. It is certain that Minister Porter has been fully informed of the attitude of the State Department and that he has already interposed with the Italian government by direction of the Department with good results, in explanation of the American methods of jurisprudence.

Whether Secretary Blaine's reply to Marquis Rudini's note for a reply was written or reached the Italian government by one or the other of these means, the communication is not known here yet; but recurrence to the concluding paragraphs of the Secretary's note to Marquis Imperiali contains satisfactory evidence of the fact that the Government of the United States will proceed in the negotiations in a dignified manner, avoiding undue haste in the treatment of a subject of such gravity as that involves, awaiting reports of its own officers as to the exact facts of the New Orleans tragedy, and remain totally unmoved by threats and protestations from any source.

Italy Insists.

ROME, April 11.—Several newspapers of this city to-day say they are able to confirm the report circulated yesterday that if the United States government does not answer Marquis Di Rudini's note by a certain date, United States Minister A. G. Porter will be requested to leave Italy, and that the Italian legation at Washington will be recalled, the Italian interests being left in charge of the British Minister. However, yesterday's report had it that the Italian government had only given the United States government until to-day in which to answer Di Rudini's note. It is now asserted by the newspapers that the Italian government has given the United States government until Tuesday, April 14th, in which to make a reply.

Immigration Considered.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The steamship companies have finally awakened to the realization that the new immigration law ought to be enforced. Yesterday a meeting of the representatives of all the principal steamship lines was held to consider the situation. Colonel Webber, President of the steamship company agents, made the point that the lines were under contract with such passengers as they took to land them in this country, and if the people were not allowed to land the companies were liable to an action for breach of contract in the countries from whose ports the steamers sailed. Further, they said, they had no facilities for restricting immigrants from landing who had been placed on board their ships for return to ports from whence they came. They also doubted their legal right to restrain any person from going ashore who insisted upon doing so.

In return, Colonel Webber said the law was not made for the benefit of the steamship companies, but for the benefit of the country, and that it was intended by the law that companies bringing improper immigrants here should suffer trouble and loss. If the companies exercised proper care as to the class of immigrants their steamships brought to these shores, there would be no trouble for any one, but the government did not propose any longer to allow the steamship companies to bring the refuse of Europe here and foist upon the government all the trouble and expense of detaining and returning such people. The law is explicit and must be obeyed, or the companies must take the consequences.

The agents then said they were willing to take the debarred immigrants back if they could be detained at the barge office pending the time of the sailing of the steamer on which they were to be returned, and a committee was appointed which will wait on Col. Webber on Monday and propose some plan of compromise.

An Important Find.

By Associated Press.

RAPID CITY (S. D.), April 11.—The find of rich galena on Squaw Creek in the Hayward mining district, in the southern part of Pennington county, continues to attract the widest attention. The Judd property shows a true fissure vein which can be traced 1,500 feet, the out-cropping being 10 to 12 feet wide. The assays prove that the ore carries $12 in silver per ton and yields from 50 to 60 per cent. of lead. The discovery is said to be the most important in the history of the Black Hills and will have an important bearing upon lead smelting of low grades of gold ores of the entire region. Galena ores, heretofore found in the hills, carry antimony which renders them unfit for smelting.

The Rioting Cokers.

By Associated Press.

MOUNT PLEASANT, April 11.—Unrest prevails among the cokers to-day. It was expected yesterday the convention would settle the strike, but a resolution to continue the fight had a depressing effect. The convention is still in session and hopes are entertained that a compromise will be effected. The 18th regiment left for home to-day. One thousand men are said to be ready to return to work at Morewood next week. The arrest of rioters still goes on; at least two hundred informations are out and over one hundred arrests have been made.

Irish Troubles.

By Cable and Associated Press.

DUBLIN, April 11.—A host of crown witnesses against the Parnellite disturbers at the McCarthy meeting were arrested at Carrick-on-Shannon yesterday for refusing to attend the Court proceedings. Arrested witnesses include clergymen, poor law guardians, coroner and Tully, the editor of the Roscommon Herald. The Ulster county veterans are determined, if possible, to bring these men to justice.

DENVER, April 11.—The switchmen of both passenger and freight trains of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy struck this morning in sympathy with the strikers at Lincoln and Omaha. Not a wheel is moving. The officials say they will fill the strikers' places.

Uneasy Apaches.

By Associated Press.

SANTA FE (N. M.), April 11.—The New Mexican is in receipt of news from the southwest that a tribe of White Mountain Apaches is very uneasy, and it is feared they will go on the war path. They are having much trouble among themselves.

The Sick.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—There is no material change in General Spaulding's condition. He is very weak. Ex-Governor Fletcher is prostrated with pneumonia, but is believed to be out of danger.

CHICAGO CANVASS.

Peaceful Prospects for Germany.

DARKEY'S DELIGHT DESTROYED.

An Order Causes Comment In Canada.

Canada Confiscates Pickled Pork.

Chicago Election Canvass.

By Cable and Associated Press.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The Board of Election Commissioners met to-day for the purpose of taking up the canvass of votes cast at the city election on Tuesday. The Board proceeded to hear evidence in the matter of the alleged misconduct of Dennis Sheehan, one of the judges of the election, for whose arrest a warrant was issued yesterday on behalf of the Chairman of the Republican Campaign Committee. S. H. Harris, one of the Republican judges testified to Sheehan's breaking into the box after it had been locked and sealed. Harris said he was informed there was a conspiracy to destroy the ballots and poll books. Sheehan testified that the whole trouble arose from the fact that Harris wanted to run things to suit himself and did not propose to let the Democratic judges have any voice in the matter. He admitted he broke the box with a hammer, but said it was with no intention of fraud. The investigation was then laid over until after a completion of the canvass. In the meantime Sheehan was locked up in jail. After remaining in jail an hour he was released on bail. The Board then turned its attention to the canvass of votes. After going over the first ward subject to revision in certain precincts which were objected to, the Board adjourned until Monday morning. The result in this ward as canvassed showed a loss of 20 votes by Cregier, of 5 by Washburne and of 2 by Harrison.

Peaceful Prospects.

By Cable and Associated Press.

VIENNA, April 11.—Emperor Francis Joseph opened the session of the Reichsrath to-day. His Majesty in great length dwelt upon the desire for peace manifested throughout Europe. He said all the European governments had given him assurance which denotes that peace was the most essential object of their endeavors. This, he added, combined with the friendly relations now existing between the powers in Europe, justifies the hope that peace prevails for many years to come.

No Copper Trust.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Tribune thinks the dispatch from Philadelphia, published yesterday, saying a copper trust had been formed, has proved, upon investigation, to have been exaggerated. The report was founded, it said, upon the formation of a copperware association of the United States in Philadelphia. There is nothing in the nature of a trust about the association. It is formed merely to take advantage of business opportunities in a business-like and entirely proper way.

Pickled Pork.

By Associated Press.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The Collector of Customs at Pembroke, Ontario, has seized 100 pounds of pork shipped from Detroit. This pork was entered as mess pork, liable to pay only 1 1/2 cents per pound or $3 per barrel duty and containing not more than 16 pieces to the barrel. The barrels averaged 36 pieces and the whole lot was seized.

The River Is Rising.

MONTREAL, April 11.—Since last night the water has risen until it is now four feet from the top of the revetment wall. It is now raining heavily and the ice is coming in from the lakes and a disastrous flood is imminent. Merchants in the lower level of the town are removing their warehouses.

A Treasury Order.

By Associated Press.

BOSTON, April 11.—A Press correspondent saw Hon. Peter Mitchell in Montreal in regard to the report from Washington that the United States authorities intended to do away with the bonding privilege.

"I fancy," said Mitchell, "that their real ground of action is the act that the Canadian Pacific, which has been largely antagonized by the American roads is securing a good deal of business, and it is quite natural the Pacific railroads of the United States should desire to cripple a successful rival. There are two sides to the question, and I should be surprised if the Atlantic cities and States, as well as the great northwestern section of that country, will tolerate being deprived of the privilege, if there is an advantage to them in having cars sealed at the frontier, simply to meet prejudices and promote the interests of American through roads. One thing is certain, anything that limits transit competition by railroads can only be done at the expense of the people, and I should hope too much intelligence exists in the States to permit Secretary Foster's proposed order to long remain in existence."

Van Horn, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway was seen, but refused absolutely to commit himself to any statement.

Sargent, Manager of the Grand Trunk, would not think there was any intention on the part of the American government to disturb the treaty of Washington, as the abolition of consular sealing will cause inconvenience, but the withdrawal of the bonding privilege does not incur the suspension of bonded regulations generally. They will no doubt continue, even should there be a modification of the present sealing privilege.

President Frank Jones of the Boston & Maine Railroad and President Arthur Sewell of the Maine Central road, who were seen in Boston on the subject, said the proposed regulation would tend to clog commerce and interfere with the business of the railroads. Both considered the announcement from Washington as only a "feeler" from the Treasury Department and that the measure was not likely to be put into execution.

Bryce Allen of the Allen steamship line said the proposed decision would be very injurious to the business of that company if put into effect.

Tragedy Near Lerdo.

By Associated Press.

EAGLE PASS (Texas), April 11.—Word has just been received of a tragedy near Lerdo. On Tuesday evening, Juan Rodriguez (clerk) with driver and porter, started a wagon with express matter from the Mexican Central station for the company's office at Lerdo, three miles distant. On the way they were attacked by a band of robbers. The driver was instantly killed and Rodriguez died soon after. The porter was wounded. The robbers secured only $200.

Negotiating With Spain.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It is believed to be true that a basis of a reciprocity treaty between the United States and Spain has been agreed upon between Premier Castillo and General Foster, but no official information in regard to the matter could be obtained from the State Department to-day. When asked whether the reciprocity treaty with Spain had been negotiated, Secretary Blaine merely replied negotiations had not been concluded.

The Hay Day Strike.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURGH, April 11.—The proposed miners' strike for the adoption of the eight hour a day rule, to be ordered three weeks hence, is the chief topic of discussion in industrial circles. About 140,000 to 150,000 men will be affected. There are not that many men actively engaged in mining coal, but that number will take part in the demands. The threatened strike will more directly affect the States of Pennsylvania and Ohio.

MERCED, April 11.—Mrs. Olsen, mother of August, was recalled this morning and reiterated her statement of yesterday that her son returned to the ranch just before 10 o'clock on the night of the murder.

Jones, the man who notified her of the murder, was then placed on the stand and said: "Mrs. Olsen told me on my arrival at the ranch that August came home towards morning." He acknowledged, however, that she talked very broken English, but he was sure he understood her.

August Olsen took the stand and said his evidence read yesterday to the jury was correct. Albert Ingalsbee said that at the ranch the day after the murder he examined Mrs. Olsen's books and found $200 credited with $200; $300 is still due him.

LAW OF NEVADA.

Passed at the Fifteenth Session of the Nevada Legislature, Ending March 10, 1891. The GAZETTE continues to-day the publication of the laws enacted by the last Legislature.

CHAP. LXI.

An Act to encourage the construction of a railroad in the State of Nevada, from the eastern boundary of said State to the western boundary thereof.

Sec. 1. Whenever, after the passage of this Act, the Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, a corporation organized and now existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Nevada, shall have constructed a first-class railroad of standard gauge through the counties of White Pine, Eureka, Lander, Churchill and Washoe, it shall be entitled to receive the bonds of said counties at the time and in the manner herein after provided to the amount of three thousand dollars per mile for each and every mile of main track of said railroad completed in said county; provided, that said railroad shall be completed and in full operation within five years from the date of the approval of this Act, and no bonds shall be issued under its provisions after that time.

Sec. 2. Immediately upon the receipt by the Board of County Commissioners of either of said counties of a sworn certificate of the County Surveyor of such county, or of such a certificate of the Survey-General of the State of Nevada, setting forth that twenty miles of such railroad as herein mentioned, have been built and completed by said company and in proper condition to receive the rolling stock, and that said section of twenty miles is a part of a continuous line of railway then in course of construction as hereinbefore specified, it shall be the duty of said Board of County Commissioners of such county, and they are hereby directed immediately to take such action as may be necessary to prepare and issue and to deliver sixty thousand dollars of the bonds of said county provided for in this Act to said railroad company; and thereafter as soon as each successive twenty miles of railroad shall have been completed and ready to receive the rolling stock in such county, and the same shall be shown by the certificate aforesaid, the said Board shall issue and deliver to said railroad company the bonds of said county, at the rate of sixty thousand dollars in bonds of [for] each section of twenty miles thus completed in said county, and in case the last section necessary to complete the whole length of the route said county shall not amount to twenty miles then for such fractional section of twenty miles. Such bonds shall be issued at the rate of three thousand dollars per mile; provided, that no bonds shall be issued under the provisions of this Act after the lapse of five years from the date of its approval and no portion of said railroad not then completed shall receive any bonds from said counties in aid of its construction.

Sec. 3. Fixes the rate of interest such bond shall bear at five per cent. per annum, payable on the first days of January and July.

Sec. 4. In each of the counties from which bonds may be issued under and by virtue of this Act, there shall be annually applied from the revenue of such county to the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds, which shall have been issued from said county, a sum of money equal in amount to the sum which shall be collected by said county from said Utah and Nevada Air Line railway company, from the taxes levied upon the entire property of said company in said county, less the amount of taxes which may have been levied on and collected therefrom for State and school purposes, and the amount so applicable to the payment of the interest and the redemption of the principal of said bonds shall be placed in a separate fund to be called the "Bonds of Interest and Sinking Fund," which shall be applied: first to the payment of the interest, as herein directed, and second, to the redemption of the principal of said bonds as provided in this Act, it being the true intent and meaning of this section of this Act that the interest and principal of all the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be paid out of the revenue derived from the respective counties from the taxes upon the property of said railroad company, less the amount realized by said counties from the taxes levied for State and school purposes.

Sec. 5. makes the bonds payable in twenty-five years, and if time is extended one year, all unpaid after that become null and void.

Sec. 6. relates to the delivery of the bonds to said railroad company, and designates how they shall be signed and sealed.

Sec. 7. provides the manner of appointment in case of the division of a county.

Sec. 8. The faith of the State is pledged that this Act shall never be repealed nor so modified, as in any way impair the security of those who shall hold or purchase any of the bonds, nor during the construction of this road after it has been in good faith commenced.

What It Costs to Smoke.

One who smokes cigars will smoke on an average not less than five cigars per day, and many smoke ten; but taking the average at five per day, a smoker will in thirty years, consume a nice little fortune. At five cigars per day, it means 150 per month or 1,800 in a year, which number multiplied by 30, the number of years, gives a total of $54,000. At ten cents apiece this amounts to $5,400.

Cattle Shipments.

There were shipped from Reno this morning two carloads of beef cattle to Welby & Judge of San Francisco and one car of beef cattle to D. A. Russell of Colfax.

There will be shipped from Reno to-morrow nine carloads of beef cattle to Grayson & Owens, to the Oakland Stock Yards, and six carloads to Hayes & Co. of the same place.

Copper Mining.

The Genoa Courier says: The Raycraft brothers have two men working on their copper mine west of town. They are sinking an incline shaft at the back end of the 58-foot tunnel and are following the ledge. They expect to take out ore enough to pay expenses while prospecting in different directions.

A PROSPEROUS TOWN.

A "Gazette" Reporter Visited Verdi and This Is What He Saw. In company with General C. C. Powning, a GAZETTE reporter visited the busy little town of Verdi Thursday and the several manufacturers of that active place. The first place that attracted his attention was the complete and mammoth plant of the Verdi Mill Co., that is officiated as follows: President, O. Lonkey; Manager, Secretary and Treasurer, J. F. Condon; Foreman, J. M. Borre, with the following gentlemen as Trustees: O. Lonkey, J. F. Condon and C. C. Powning. The company manufactures doors, windows, sash, blinds and boxes of every description, which they find a market for in Utah, California, Nevada, Washington, Oregon and New Mexico. The company is provided with the machinery necessary for working 46 men, but just now they employ but about 30. The wood printing press, which prints the card and trade mark of the firms they make boxes for, has a capacity of 16,000 per day and prints as nicely as on paper. The mill is provided with 32 machines, consisting of planers, edgers, re-sawing machines, boring machines, planing and moulding machines, band, gig and circular saws, turning lathes, and, in fact, every labor-saving invention for the cheap manufacture of the goods they deal in can be found in the mill. The building is 150 by 250 feet and one story and a basement high. The motive power is a 32-inch Leffel water wheel, controlled by Woodward's patent water wheel governor, which runs the machinery like clock work and keeps the water wheel at a regular rate of speed of 160 revolutions per minute. The plant is provided with a Sturtevant fan and every machine is connected therewith, which takes the shavings and sawdust to a furnace about 200 feet below the mill, where it is burned, furnishing heat for the dry-rooms.

The refuse blocks and knots that fall from the saws find their way to the basement by means of a chute where they are caught in an endless chain elevator and hoisted to a bin on top of the building that is so arranged that by opening a gate to the bin the knots are carried to a box car by means of another chute, and sold for wood. A car load of these knots of ten cords, sells delivered in Reno, for $30 per cord and make excellent fuel.

The dry room is built near the mill and the heat is conveyed through terra cotta pipes. It supplies its own light from an electrical dynamo in the building and also furnishes the light during the winter months for the Essex Ice Company's works, situated a short distance above the planing mill, which General Powning in superintending. Taking it as a whole it is one of the most complete plants of the kind this reporter ever saw. They are just now finishing up a contract for boxes for Los Angeles firm.

THE MARBLE WORKS.

Is another industry that Reno should have secured. The works are employing about twenty men and when they get on to the finishing work on the Mills' building in San Francisco they will employ about eighty. They are now running seven gangs sawing marble, and have 60,000 of rough ashlar to polish. They are shipping three car loads of dressed marble to San Francisco every week now. It will take them nearly two years to finish the work required for the Mills' building. The little town is just humming with thrift and industry and the villagers are all happy and contented and why should they not be? With cozy little cottages to live in, plenty of work at good wages and the hum of industry on every side of them has a tendency to make a community happy, prosperous and wise. Camille Lonkey and Billy Cook, who are in the prospecting by merchandising, as Giraux and Lachapelle the leading hotel men of the town, and W. P. Burns and George Avery.

FROM BATTLE MOUNTAIN.

Some Interesting Items from That Section.

The following items are from the Central Nevada of Thursday: George O'Brian has gone to the southwestern part of the State to look at the famous Breyfogle mine, and, if possible, locate a number of claims.

Blossom & Blossom are selling Hovenden alfalfa and Irish ranch hay. They are both home products of the best quality.

There are 120 bales of wool on the ore platform, to be shipped to California. The clip in Lander county will be 230,000 pounds, worth $36,000. Of this amount, 100,000 pounds are from the neighborhood of Battle Mountain.

Eight years ago wild game was abundant on the river and wild ducks in large numbers inhabited the sloughs. The building of the narrow-gauge railroad south, which brought to Battle Mountain railroad officials, crack-shots, with nothing to do but hunt, resulted in killing or driving away the game, so that for the past eight years hunting along the river has been a tame affair.

Gold Fever in Nye County.

The Austin Reville of yesterday says: George W. Dickson has returned from a trip into Nye county. He reports much excitement throughout that section over the discovery of gold in southern Nye, and many parties equipping themselves preparatory to leaving in search of the yellow metal. W. W. Booth, Jerry Kelley, a Mr. Woodruff and several others, well known in Austin, were seen on his trip.

BOARD OF TRADE.

Matters Looking Well for Nevada's Future.

The monthly meeting of the Board was held to-day. The Manager said: W. A. Fitts of Lakeview, Gunnison county, Colorado, writes the Board of Trade for information regarding the portion of Lincoln county, Nev., bordering on the Colorado river. He wants a place to make a small farm and stock range.

E. P. Lovejoy, a live business man of Mason Valley writes that parties from California visiting his section were very much pleased with what they saw. One party bought 100 head of horses and shipped them west. One man said to Mr. Lovejoy "what's the matter with your people? They all want to sell out. Where do they think they can go and do better? I have been all over the coast and I don't know of a place where a poor man can make an easier living."

Down with us old country land from $100 to $500 an acre and one acre of your land will produce twice as much as one of ours."

"If the farmers of Nevada would sell half their land to men who would work it and then put in their time on the other half they would not complain of hard times any more years to come. Mr. Lovejoy is making extensive experiments with sugar beets."

J. B. Williams of Tennessee writes a second letter in which he says: "We are in earnest about this matter. If your county proves as good as I believe to believe, you may look for not ten but forty or fifty families, and possibly many more. It has rained fully one half the time since last July, and our land being hilly it has nearly ruined us. Anything you write will be eagerly sought and read by a large number of our best citizens. We are all native Americans, educated, sober and industrious. Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Odd Fellows, Masons, etc." A full description of the State has been sent Mr. Williams, more particularly of the Lovelocks country.

During the month Nevada potatoes have been shipped to St. Louis, Chicago, Memphis, Fort Worth and other places by the car load.

Parties from Missouri and other places east are sending to Mr. McCormack of Reno for samples of Lovelocks marble and onyx.

It is many years since a year has opened in Nevada as well as '91. Prices for silver, wheat, potatoes, beef, mutton and wool are well sustained. New land is being put in and the prospects are good all over the State.

A LIVELY RUNAWAY.

A Team Belonging to Wm. Waits Take a Spin on the Road.

About 4 o'clock yesterday a team belonging to Wm. Waits got frightened near Folsom & Wells' store and started down the Asylum road at a break-neck pace. As they went thundering along they attracted the attention of J. L. Blackburn, who was looking after some cattle at the stock yards, and he attempted to stop them with his saddle horse by running immediately in front of the frightened animals and in that way check their speed. Mr. Blackburn succeeded in turning them on the road that led to the Fair grounds, when they overtook a horse and buckboard, driven by young Conway and his aged mother. The team straddled the buckboard, tore the seat off and dumped the unfortunate occupants out among the trees, but the collision stopped their mad flight, and Mr. Blackburn arrested young Conway and his mother from their perilous position, and found that they were not hurt in any way. A broken pole and a smashed buckboard was the only damage done.

The Mafia at Home.

An incident certain to have its effect on Italian sentiment towards the New Orleans lynching tragedy is reported from the Tyrol, where a Mafia assassination has taken place. A member of the Italian Mafia, according to police investigation, mistook a Kufstein merchant for a conspirator against whom the secret tribunal had declared, and plunged his stiletto into him, only to discover his mistake after his victim was dead. It is said, and with every probability of truth, that the affair has created considerable excitement, and that there is a growing indignation against the secret societies of the peninsula.

A Natural Trouble.

The Silver State perpetrates the following libel upon some resident of Winnemucca: A short time since a lady called upon a dentist, not over a thousand miles from this place, and wanted a tooth pulled, and upon examination, the dentist said: "Madam, that can't be, you have false teeth. Well, won't false teeth ache? No, madame. Well, said the lady, something hurts my jaw up there."

Nearly Frantic.

Has it ever been your misfortune to be brought into frequent contact with a person excessively nervous. If so, you must be aware that trivial causes, unnoticed by the vigorous, drive a nervous invalid to the verge of destruction. It is as unnecessary to particularize these as it is impossible to guard against them. The root of the evil is usually imperfect digestion and assimilation. To assist these functions, and through their renewed, complete discharge of relief, force weak nerves, and conjunction with other portions of the physical organism, is within the power of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, systematically and continuously used. There is no disappointment here, no matter what or how grievous the failures of other so-called tonics. No sedative or opiate—avoid both. Can compare with this invigorating natural, alkaline, cathartic, saline, stimulant, malaria, rheumatism, kidney troubles are cured by it.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

Don't forget the dance at Armory Hall Saturday night.

Workmen are engaged in painting the Armory Hall building, and it improves the structure very materially.

T. K. Hymers is putting up a brick addition to his stable 18x70. It will be used as a carriage house and be quite an addition.

"Butter was unknown to the ancients," says a writer. Possibly; but ancient butter is not unknown to boarders. Buy your cigars at Marcus Fredrick's.

The Womens' Guild of Trinity Church will give a bean supper on tomorrow (Saturday) evening at the Rectory, from 5 o'clock to 8 o'clock p. m. All are invited.

She—Tell me, what difference is there between a ready-made tie and one you tie yourself? He—About an hour. All kinds of ties at Sunderland's; four-in-hand and scarfs of all styles.

From boyhood he was steeped in crime, in wickedness and vice, and yet in one respect he was sublime—he never smoked a cigarette. Because he preferred La Marseillaise cigars, sold only by A. Nelson.

Hay is a drug in the Salt Lake market at the following prices, according to the Tribune: Ten times the amount of alfalfa that is being consumed is being offered on the market. The market is quiet, sales slow, and these prices are being offered: Alfalfa baled, $3; wild hay, $3; upland, $10 and $11; timothy, $13 and $14—all on the track in this city.

President Slicer of the Federal Trades Council of Salt Lake City says there are more mechanics, artisans and laborers coming in there than can possibly find employment, and scores of them are walking the streets to-day for lack of something to do. There are, generally speaking, three men for one job. Mr. Slicer wishes men from the outside would cease coming that way for work.

A DOCTOR'S REBUKE.

Immensely More Mischief than is Generally Suspected.

Dr. King, the eminent medical writer, in a learned dissertation on our national complaint, constipation, says: The great quantity of cathartic pills, etc., which are taken by the people of this country are productive of immensely more mischief than is generally suspected. True, the physic unloads the bowels, but its action tends to diminish the tone of the intestines; the instead of removing the cause, it aggravates it, leaving the bowels in a more torpid condition.

Joy's Vegetable Sanifacient is designed to fill just such a contingency as the doctor's arrangement anticipates, viz: instead of being a powerful mineral purgative, it is a mild vegetable laxative, that, owing to its solvent and gentle stimulating properties, is so certain a relief in constipation that it has been given away to hundreds, not to be paid for unless it was of positive benefit. It replaces constipation almost immediately with a natural easy habit, and is so mild that unlike drastic purgatives, it can be taken indefinitely with perfect safety.

I Mean It.

Cephaline cures all kinds of headache, even the most chronic and aggravated cases vanish before its magic influence. Ask your druggist for it.

A PRINCE FROM SCHENECTADY.

Incidents in the Early Life of the Consort of Queen Liliuokalani.

Many an old-fortier, says the Schenectady Union, will remember a little dark-skinned, black-haired, foreign-looking boy playing in Front street and around "8's" engine-house forty-five or fifty years ago. He will be recalled as Johnny Dominis. He was a stranger, and the boys took him in. The story of the boy was this:

His father was captain of a whaler, who, with his wife and three children—Johnny and his two sisters—lived at 26 Front street, in the hospitable home of Rev. Dr. Andrew Yates. Dominis cruised in the neighborhood of the Sandwich Islands. This was missionary ground, and Dominis was a pious man. Dr. Yates became interested in him and his family. So during the long cruises the wife and children remained here. The two sisters, Fanny and Catherine, died of a remarkable complaint, two rapid growth. Like lilies they rose rapidly, tall, slender and fragile, drooped and died. Both lie near the tomb of Colonel Christopher Yates, and by the grave of Dr. Andrew Yates.

The captain took his last voyage. Pirates seized his ship in the south Pacific, and the brave officer was made to walk a plank into the sea. The widow and her children went to the Sandwich Islands, leaving some boxes of household goods in the charge of the family with whom she had lived so long. A prey to dementia and melancholy, she walked every day along the shores of Honolulu, refusing to believe the hourly for her husband, and watching hourly for his return. A little while ago the faithful wife's vigil ended, and she met him on another shore.

Meanwhile Johnny thrived apace. He was well taught at Miss Ritchie's school, grew to be a man of brain and nerve and activity, won the confidence of King Kalakaua; was made Governor of the island of Oahu, married Liliuokalani, the King's sister, and ultimately became in reality the ruler of the islands.

King Kalakaua came to this country on a visit in 1881, and Johnny came with him. Johnny was written to by those of Dr. Yates family who were then in Schenectady to come and get two trunks. But he had his hands full with the royal traveler, and he wrote a letter of thanks, saying that he had intended to come here, but his constant attendance on his Majesty made it impossible. He did not say he was having a worse racket than he ever had on the old fort, but it could be read between the lines. He directed the trunks to be opened. They were, but nothing but what had evidently been handsome furs and lace and other feminine bric-a-brac crumbling into dust was disclosed.

And now the King is dead. Johnny's wife is Queen, Johnny himself is Prince Consort as Prince Albert, of England, was. But Johnny is really King has been for fifteen years. Think of a boy being educated at Miss Ritchie's school, and under the refining influences of the old fort coming to be a king.

ENGLAND'S NAVY.
In Spite of Its Reputation It Does Not Satisfy the English.

"The truly perilous condition of our country during war, owing to the exceedingly weak state of the navy as compared with that from 1793 to 1851," is the subject of a very remarkable letter just written by Admiral Sir Thomas Symonds, of the royal navy, to the Marquis of Salisbury. Standing in the light of a recognized authority, remarks the New York Times, Sir Thomas is listened to by the British military service with mingled wonder and apprehension. The service papers print the letter in full, with copious editorials.

Sir Thomas states that Great Britain has no fewer enemies than in 1805, and it would be impossible to supply the coaling stations during war with France alone. The fighting and mercantile navies would be paralyzed, and the punctual supply of food would be impossible.

"In personnel our numbers are about 30,000 partly trained men. The French have 104,000 men and 26,000 marine artillerymen and light infantry. Total, 130,000 well-trained men. We should have at least marine artillerymen enough beyond what we have to garrison our dock-yard towns, which should be, like the French, under pre-fort-Admiral. As to vessels, we have none. We need twenty battle-ships and fifty cruisers of all classes ready for sea as a reserve—except being manned—to relieve accidents, and even for coaling, passing the crews of those vessels returning to port to those ready for sea."

In conclusion Admiral Symonds says that he deems it his imperative duty to make manifest how recklessly his country is pursuing the road to ruin in the event of war, for he is certain that seventy-five armor-clads and eighty-eight cruisers, some of which are of a questionable character, can not possibly fulfill the duties expected of her Majesty's navy.

A Terrible Warning.
A lightning-rod man who is canvassing the country districts of Georgia gives the people this terrible warning to induce them to buy his rods: "An old man down in the country refused to have us rod his dwelling. His wife and grown daughter stood on his front porch and cried for a lightning-rod. As I mounted my wagon I said to him: 'Old man, in less than thirty days you will regret this.' And, gentlemen, it is the truth that in just twenty-nine days from that time the lightning fell on that old man's house, demolished the house, killed his wife and daughter, and completely paralyzed him."

Observation Parties.
"Observation parties" are the latest thing in society. An observation party affords a great deal of amusement, and in addition, displays the fact that few persons are good observers or have good memories. The members of the observation party are asked by the host to observe the furnishings of the dinner-table, for instance. Then they are given five minutes to write down a list of the articles that are on the table. The person whose memory is best and who can write down within the prescribed time—five minutes, say—the largest number of articles on the table is awarded some sort of a prize.

A QUEEN'S JEWELS.

Three Thousand Precious Stones at Issue in an Eastern Court.

A very curious action has just been recorded in the court of the recorder of Rangoon. The plaintiff was one of the wives of Mindoon Min, King of Burma, Thebaw's father and predecessor, and is known as the Limban Queen, and she claimed as sole heiress of her daughter, the Sawlin Princess, to be entitled to a large amount of jewelry deposited with the defendants in 1878 under unusual circumstances. The Princess, it seems, says the Chicago News, was a great favorite with her father, King Mindoon Min, who made her large and frequent presents of gems and jewelry of all kinds. In 1878 Mindoon Min was on the point of death, and it was known that confusion in the palace would follow on that event. It was apparently foreseen that his successor, Thebaw, would—in fact, he did—murder most of his relatives, and while the King lay dying special measures for guarding the palace were taken. The Limban Queen and her daughter, the Sawlin Princess, dreading what the near future had in store for them, concerted measures to get the jewels of the latter out of the palace to a place of safety where they would be accessible in case of need later on. For this purpose they took into their confidence certain bazaar dealers, who had access to the ladies' quarters, to sell their wares, and by their aid succeeded in getting out all the jewels, packed to look like sweetmeats. These dealers, known as Aga Khan, a Mahomedan name, were the defendants. They absolutely denied any deposit of the kind, but the recorder found against them on the facts and decided that about three thousand precious stones, which were specified by weight and value in a list made at the time in the palace and retained ever since by the Queen, had, in fact, been placed in their charge immediately prior to Mindoon Min's death, and in anticipation of that event. The Princess died a few months after. The Queen's mother, remained in prison until the British troops occupied Mandalay in 1885, when she was, of course, released. All this time she hoarded nothing of the jewels, for she had no opportunity of doing so, and obviously did not desire to have them returned. The dealers with whom they were deposited left Mandalay soon after Thebaw began to reign; but on her release the Queen inquired after them and found them in Rangoon, when, as already stated, she was met by a blank denial that such jewels had ever been deposited with them. But here the judge found against them, largely on the evidence that nine years ago, and three years after the deposit, one of the defendants had in his possession a large ruby cut in the shape of a wild duck, which was described in the Queen's list as having been handed over to the defendants in the sweetmeat boxes in 1878. A decree of restitution was therefore made against all the defendants except one, in regard to whom the action was held barred by the statute of limitations. Subsequent to her release from imprisonment the Queen was prevented from suing for five years in consequence of her poverty.

The Engagement Ring.
The girl with a ring on her first finger is not to be found any more. The engagement ring is worn on either the middle or fourth finger, but never on the first, says the Jewelers' Review. At a recent wedding in New York the bride removed her right glove and the ring was placed on her right hand, instead of the left. The reason for this change is not known. The fourth finger of the left hand has been known as the finger for the wedding ring from the earliest time—it being supposed that the veins from this finger went straight to the heart. Perhaps the young ladies' hearts are changing nowadays. The winter girl is marked by two characteristics—she has her hair frizzled all over her head, and she wears a ring on her little finger.
